

Philosophy 1: Exam 2

Answer all three of the following and turn in by October 28th in class or by email 29th

1. What was the new way of thinking introduced by the pre-Socratics? What problems/issues did they pursue and what solutions did they provide and how? What is most distinctive about their thinking that shaped course of Western thinking in science, philosophy, and religion?
2. Diagram the Crito and use the Apology diagram as a model for this.
3. How did Plato's Theory of Forms and Aristotle's hylomorphism incorporate previous thinking and provide solutions to the problems of previous thinking among philosophers and sophists?