

Phil 1: Socrates

1. What does this mean? “No Harm can come to a good person.”
2. What is a person? How is this related to virtue?
3. The unexamined life is not worth living. What makes this so important? What makes it so hard to see? Why is Socrates the exception and not the rule? Why don't we just see him as abhorrent/repulsive/undesirable and aberrant/abnormal instead of a model to strive for?
4. What is our obligation to the city state (to the collective) and why?
5. What is death for Socrates? Why is it important to understand this?
6. What is the significance of Socrates Death?
